1. Kertas soalan ini mengandungi 22 soalan.
2. Jawab semua soalan.
3. Tiap-tiap soalan diikuti oleh empat pilihan jawapan yang berhuruf A, B, C dan D. Bagi tiap-tiap soalan, pilih satu jawapan sahaja.
4. Fikir dengan teliti ketika memilih jawapan. Jika anda hendak menukar sesuatu jawapan, padamkan sehingga bersih tanda yang tidak dikehendaki itu dan kemudian bulatkan pilihan anda yang baru.

SECTION A

Each question or incomplete statement is followed by four possible answers. Choose the correct or best answer from the answers marked A, B, C and D. Then on your own question paper, circle the letter of the answer that you have chosen.

Setiap soalan atau ayat yang tidak lengkap diikuti oleh empat pilihan jawapan. Pilih jawapan yang betul atau yang paling baik daripada jawapan A, B, C dan D. Bulatkan huruf yang kamu pilih sebagai jawapan kamu di atas kertas soalan ini.

Questions 1 - 5

Read the following passage and answer the questions below. Baca petikan di bawah dan jawab soalan-soalan berikut.

The Malay Civet is a wild animal. It looks like a cat but its nose is longer than that of a cat's. It is common in East and West Malaysia. It lives in all types of forest and woodland. This animal often visits camps or villages at night to feed on food which people throw away. It normally feeds on fruit, insects and small reptiles. Being a poor climber, it mainly stays on the ground. It is most active at night. The Civet has a long body with relatively short legs. It is distinguished from other civets by the dark rings on its tail. When a civet becomes frightened or disturbed, it lets out a foul-smelling matter from its body. This will keep its enemies away.

1. The Malay Civet is a
 - A. hungry animal.
 - B. foul-smelling animal.
 - C. wild animal.
 - D. frightened animal.

2. The Malay Civet stays mainly on the ground because
 - A. it has short legs.
 - B. it cannot climb trees well.
 - C. it is active at night.
 - D. it wants to look for food.

3. How is it different from other civets?
 - A. It has a foul-smelling body.
 - B. It has short legs and a long body.
 - C. It has dark rings on its tail
 - D. It feeds on insects and reptiles.

4. The word 'this' in the last sentences refers to
- A. its body.
 - B. the civet.
 - C. the disturbance.
 - D. the foul-smelling matter.
5. The term 'foul-smelling' means
- A. nice.
 - B. sweet.
 - C. unusual.
 - D. unpleasant.

No.16Jalan Bunga Mawar,
46000 Petaling Jaya,
Selangor.
20 September 2001

Dear Indira,

How are you getting on? How are mom and dad? I hope you are all in the best of health. I am fine here.

I started my classes last week. And already there is a lot of assignments to do.

The computer course is tough and I promised myself to really study hard.

Do you know that I have a new friend? His name is Henry. He is my room-mate and he is from Kuching Sarawak. He is also a very good tennis player. I hope to pick up some new tips from him. Sometimes we play tennis together especially during weekends.

Indira, don't be naughty. Always listen to mom and dad. Take good care of yourself and please remember to do your revision as UPSR is just around the corner. Study hard. Try your best to get all A's in your UPSR. Have to go now, as my eyes are getting heavy. Send my warmest regards to mom and dad.

Love,
Roshen
