Last weekend, Kamil, Tan Chai, Timah and Maliga played hide-and-seek in the garden. Maliga closed her eyes and started counting while Kamil, Tan Chai and Timah ran off to hide.

"..... eight, nine, ten! I'm going to find you," shouted Maliga. She saw something moving behind a mango tree. She walked towards it. "Timah, I can see you behind the tree," shouted Maliga excitedly. Timah crawled out of the hiding place.

"Tan Chai, you're hiding behind the dustbin. Come out now," called out Maliga. Tan Chai quickly came out of hiding with a hand over his nose.

"I couldn't have stayed there any longer. The smell was horrible." cried Tan Chai. This made the girls laugh. "I wonder where Kamil is. He is always so good at hiding himself," said Maliga.

She walked across the garden, to look for Kamil. But Kamil was nowhere to be found. She looked inside the garage and behind the house. She looked upstairs and downstairs. She looked everywhere but she could not find Kamil. She went to the garden and called out, "I give up, Kamil. Where are you?"

Just at that moment, Maliga, Timah and Tan Chai heard a loud crash. They turned and saw Kamil lying on the ground under a tree and crying out in pain. There was a broken branch next to him.
